

Introduction

Animal Shelter Management System is a database application which is used to maintain and track the status of animals in the shelter

The program is simple yet powerful, providing a wide range of functions to the user in a neat interface while hiding the complexities of the database implementation.

The software stores data such as, customer details, animal details and animal injuries, it also maintains a relation among them.

It is written using Python programming language with database software integration using SQL